FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Minuteman Press, Joliet receives major national print quality award

Joliet, IL (August 25, 2008) Minuteman Press Joliet- Minuteman Press International awards Joliet location with the Minuteman Press Top Quality Award.

Minuteman Press, Joliet owners Scott Nelson and Rick Lozano accepted the Minuteman Press Top Quality award on August 16th, 2008 at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas during the Minuteman Press International Convention. The award is given to the top 10 franchisees from over 900 worldwide. The award is presented only to those franchise owners whose excellence of craftsmanship and quality maintains the high printing standards set by Minuteman Press.

Scott Nelson, owner, stated "This award validates our commitment to quality that we achieved by hiring the most qualified and talented professionals and providing them with the most advanced equipment and technology. We are delighted to have won this award in only our 5th year in business".

In efforts to continue the commitment to quality and customer service, Minuteman Press of Joliet will be moving and expanding into a 5,000 square foot facility to support their growing customer base. The move will also allow them to provide additional products and services. The new location will be at 335 West Jefferson Street. The grand opening is estimated to be around January 2009.

Minuteman Press is a full-service printing and graphics company providing offset and digital printing, bindery services, high speed black and white/color copying, design services and promotional items.
